SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

On the cusp of fame, power, or influence, would you turn it down? Today's Gospel again features John the Baptist. Controversial but popular, John has gathered quite a group of followers. He has disciples. People come from near and far to be baptized by him. Pharisees and government leaders are drawn to his preaching. If John was another man, a lesser man, he would have claimed his own greatness. Instead, John the Baptist is a witness to humility.

"The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him and said, 'Behold the Lamb of God ... He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me.' ... the reason why I came baptizing with water was that He might be made known.'" Rather than point to himself, John points to Christ. John could have grasped at what he had accumulated. He could have seen Jesus as a Messianic competitor. Instead, John knows who He is. He knows His place as forerunner. Because John knows who Jesus is. "I have seen and testified that He is the Son of God."

A life of humility, a life for others, can be challenging to live. So much of our culture is built around achievement and individualism. We can justify it, too, in pursuit of "greater goods" and higher ideals. In the process, however, we might miss our own participation in the kingdom of God. John, for all of his humility, was not an afterthought. In another Gospel passage, Jesus calls him "the greatest prophet," even the greatest of men. Why? Because he fulfills the mission given to him by God: to announce the coming of the Messiah. We too are prophets and forerunners. Our witness to the Gospel is meant to point people to Jesus. Consider your own mission this week. To whom are you called to announce the good news of the Son of God?

IN OUR PARISH*Super Bowl Collection

Our Social Ministry Committee will be collecting donations the weekend of February 1st and 2nd, Super Bowl Sunday, after all the Masses. Parishioners of St. Mary Our Mother have always been very generous in sharing their good fortune with those less fortunate. The proceeds from this collection will be donated to the Horseheads Food Pantry. It is a pleasure to see young people holding the helmets at the end of Mass at each of the exits. If you have young people who are able to do this, please ask them to help! A signup sheet for all of the masses is posted on the bulletin board. This will only take about 15 minutes of your time after Mass. Thank you.

Parish Calendars

The parish of St. Mary Our Mother is sincerely grateful to the Lynch Funeral Home for their donation of our 2020 parish calendars. Thank you!

St. Mary Our Mother School Registration

St. Mary Our Mother School is accepting student registrations for grades pre-k 3 through grade six. Openings will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. Parents or guardians who are new to St. Mary Our Mother School will need: birth certificate, baptismal certificate, immunization records and a completed parish commitment form for members of the parish. The non-refundable registration fee is $150 per family. Both before and after school care are available. For further information, call St. Mary Our Mother School at 739-9157.

Mass Intentions

Any one of our regularly scheduled Masses may be offered for a specific intention - in memory of a deceased person, for a sick person's recovery, a special birthday, a special anniversary or other occasion.

Please call the parish office at 739-3817 to request your Mass.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

This week finds us returning to the Sunday of Ordinary Time, which will continue until Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, which this year falls on Wednesday, February 26th. This weekend also invites us to prayerfully remember the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., whose memory we honor on Monday. In addition, every January from the 18th to the 25th, we observe the Week of Christian Unity, where we are invited to pray for greater unity among all Christian and non-Christian Churches. A third theme we are invited to focus our efforts on is a great respect for all human life.

Every year since his death, we have been reminded of the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Dr. King stood for the equality of all people, and especially spoke of his "dream", when all would sit at one table, when all would be able to ride the same bus, when all were looked upon and were identified by their gifts and talents and not by the color of their skin. His tragic and violent death, like modern day terrorism and violence, are hard reminders that humans can act in terrible and tragic ways. Dr. King's death, as well as any act of violence or terrorism, are sobering reminders that we have yet to achieve Dr. King's dream. This holiday weekend affords us an opportunity to address any personal prejudice that might be a part of our personal lives, and to recognize the common integrity of every human being.

The Supreme Court's decision of Roe vs. Wade to legalize abortion in the United States met its critical crisis in defending human life as beginning not at conception but at natural birth. Since that day, we have had great challenges trying to explain that life begins at conception. If the child in the womb is a person, by American standards, that person has individual rights. The theology of the Roman Catholic Church defines human life beginning at conception. While this definition has caused many painful decisions to be made on the part of parents, it is a starting point for conversation about our understanding of human life. Jesus 'life' is defined from the moment of the Annunciation, when Mary said "yes" to the angel. Mary's 'life' began at the Immaculate Conception, as the sinless vessel of God. The annual anniversary of Roe vs. Wade serves as a reminder that we need to re-affirm our belief of human life beginning at conception.

Ever since the Second Vatican Council, the Church has set aside eight days in January - specifically January 18 through 25 - as a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. It is a time when we acknowledge our common bonds with our Christian sisters and brothers in our faith. We worship a common God, and we find our religious foundations in common tradition. For the most part, we utilize the same scriptures for our prayer and faith formation. For many, our ritual of worship is somewhat similar, often using the same hymns and prayers. This week of prayer for Christian Unity is our commitment to our Lord's Prayer at the Last Supper, "that all may be one." (John 17:21) Since the Second Vatican Council, we have come to realize that our unity can be expressed in many ways. Perhaps the most popular example of this is the annual Service of Lessons and Carols, held each December, usually on the Second Sunday of Advent.

So is there a common bond which unites the violence and terrorism in this world, to observance of the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday, to a greater awareness of human life, from the womb to the tomb; to the week of prayer for Christian Unity? It is the fact that we are people of the same God. Each person has a responsibility to see others as sisters and brothers, offering respect and dignity to each other. It is this responsibility that enables us to address issues such as human life beginning at conception, those who live in the grip of poverty, those who find themselves in prison, those who are close to death. We need to acknowledge the common bond that unites all Christian churches as the Body of Christ.

Have a great week. See you in church!

Fr. L.

REGIONAL EVENTS

Oppose Physician-assisted Suicide

While we may not often consider end-of-life issues, now is the time to pay closer attention. Several states have already legalized physician-assisted suicide, and efforts are underway to do so in New York State as well.

It's important to know what physician-assisted suicide does NOT mean, so let's start with clarification on Catholic teaching on end of life medical treatment. In their document, Now And At The Hour of Our Death, our NYS Catholic Bishops teach: “Out of deep respect for the gift of life, we must always accept, and others must provide, ordinary medical means of preserving life. Ordinary means are those that offer us a reasonable hope of benefit and would not entail excessive burden on us, our family or the community. Ordinary means of medical treatment are morally obligatory. Withholding ordinary care with the intention of causing death is considered passive euthanasia and is always gravely contrary to God’s will. But Catholics are not morally bound to prolong the dying process by using every medical treatment available. Allowing natural death to occur is not the same as killing. Some treatments may be considered “extraordinary” (as opposed to ordinary) and are not morally obligatory because the burdens and consequences are out of proportion to the beneficial results anticipated for a particular patient. These are considered morally optional treatments.” Opposition to physician-assisted suicide in New York State will be the focus for our Diocesan Public Policy Advocacy petition signing on February 8/9, 2020.

Notre Dame High School Open House

Notre Dame High school, grades 7-12 will hold an open house on Tuesday, January 28, 2020. The evening will begin with a presentation at 6:30 p.m. with campus tours to follow. Prospective students are invited to tour the school, meet current students, and engage with the faculty and administration. Notre Dame is a college preparatory school rich in the traditions of the Sisters of Mercy and academic excellence. Additionally, Notre Dame offers a competitive athletic program along with many opportunities to participate in the performing visual and language arts. Notre Dame is located at 1400 Maple Avenue, Elmira and is currently accepting applications for new students for the 2020/2021 school year. For further information, visit www.notredamehighschool.com or call 607-734-2267, ext. 9.

Horseheads Food Pantry

Non-perishable food and grocery items are being collected for the Horseheads Food Pantry this month. The Horseheads Food Pantry is in need of all food items and especially asks for canned soups for the month of January. For your convenience, please place all donations in the cart located across from the bulletin board. Thank you for your generosity!

EVERY DAY STEWARDSHIP

How many times have you sung the church song, "Here I Am, Lord"? If you grew up Catholic and are around my age (still 50!), the answer is more than you can count. The song that quotes various verses of Scripture is sung using guitar, piano, or organ, by cantors and choirs, in traditional and modern churches. It is truly a Catholic greatest hit of the modern Church. The question is how many times when singing the refrain have you really taken to heart what you were singing.

"Here I am, Lord; is it I, Lord? I have heard you calling in the night." Like the biblical figure Samuel, we are responding to the call of God by asking for clarification that we are indeed the one being called. We then follow up the question with a profound statement: "I will go if You lead me." It is profound because we are pledging to our God that we are willing to go wherever He wants. We are accepting the challenge put forth in the U.S. Bishops' pastoral letter, "Stewardship: A Disciple's Response," to become mature disciples who respond to the call of Jesus Christ regardless of the cost. We have sung this pledge repeatedly for many years.

We never have any idea what God will call us to do and where to go. Sometimes the request can ask us for quite a lot. Hopefully, we respond like a mature disciple. If not, maybe we should reflect more the next time this song is played. The melody will not allow for the words, "I will see if I am busy and then decide to go if you lead me." Then again, I don't want to sing that to God, the source of all life anyway. Do you?
