SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

He has you in mind. Do we think about that much? The God of the universe has us in mind, individually as persons and together as one human family. We hear this truth in today's Gospel story of Thomas. His doubt is likely familiar to us by now. "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nail marks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Jesus is God. He could have risen any way he wanted. He could have risen perfectly healed, as a further sign of his power over death and suffering. But when Thomas encounters him, we see what Jesus chose. "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." In resurrecting His body, Jesus already has Thomas in mind. Jesus retains His wounds for Thomas, for the disciples, and for all who would doubt the sacrificial power of love. This intentional love of Jesus is echoed by John and his disciples, who authored this Gospel. "Jesus did many other signs...these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ...and that through this belief you may have life in his name."

From its earliest beginnings, the Church knew the power of sign and story. When they wrote the Gospels, they had us in mind. We are all Thomas from time to time. We need to see the mercy of God lived and real in our lives. This can happen throughout the circumstances of our daily comings and goings. It can also happen through meditating on the Scripture, through placing ourselves in the stories and listening to God's voice speaking. We don't get to see what the disciples got to see, but we know, through them, that God always has us in mind. As He reminds the disciples, "Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Coming Soon: Math Olympiads at St. Mary Our Mother School

The new Math Olympiads team forming at St. Mary Our Mother School needs volunteer coaches to help get it off the ground. Please consider offering your time as much as once a week from October through March. Weekly practices prepare student "mathletes" for five monthly competitions starting in November. But much more important are the objectives of encouraging children to explore math and ask questions about anything they don't understand, no matter how basic, and providing guidance for students who want to challenge themselves. This will be an easy-going, learn-as-we-go activity for 3rd through 6th graders and their coaches. Practice materials and guidance will be provided. No special math expertise required- just enthusiasm.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

St. Augustine once said, "We are an Easter people." Today, I would like to thank so many people who participated in the liturgies of Holy Week, beginning with the solemn rites of Palm Sunday, the Holy Thursday Liturgy of the Lord's Last Supper, the solemn liturgy of Good Friday, the Easter Vigil on Holy Saturday, as well as the festive liturgies of Easter Sunday. My gratitude goes especially to those who served as ushers, lectors, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, acolytes, cantors, our Adult, Youth, and Children's choirs, instrumentalists, sacristans, those who helped decorate our worship space, the 'twelve' who participated in the Holy Thursday Ritual Washing of the Feet, and all who worked quietly 'behind the scenes.' I also thank you for your participation in the services of Holy Week and Easter.

As the priest presider at these liturgies, I have a unique vantage point where I am able to observe people and their faces during these Holy Week liturgies, all filled with deep faith, obvious hope, and powerful love. Let me mention just a few of these moments which touched me during Holy Week, 2019:

- ~ Beginning with the Palm Sunday liturgy, the Blessing of Palms, proclamation of the gospel, and procession into the church to begin Holy Week;
- ~ the look of anticipation on the faces of twelve parishioners, both women and men, youth and "seasoned" during the Holy Thursday liturgy as they participated in the ritual Washing of Feet;
- ~ the solemn Eucharistic procession through the church to the chapel repository, with many of our children preparing for First Eucharist carrying candles and joining in the procession;
- ~ the moving and solemn singing of "Gethsemene" by Jeannette Berretta as the altar was stripped;
- ~ the entire congregation coming forth on Good Friday to venerate the cross, some with tears in their eyes, with no two people venerating the cross the same way, but all with the same faith and deep reverence of the loving sacrifice Christ made for each of us on the cross; the most touching gesture was a young child simply 'hugging' the cross;
- ~ the intent look on the faces of those gathered in O'Brien Hall for the beginning of the great Easter Vigil, with the blessing of fire, the inscription of the Easter Candle, processing into the church with the light from the Easter candle, slowly spreading among those in procession into the church, as we listened intently to the Easter proclamation;
- ~ sitting in a darkened church and listening attentively as the Easter Vigil unfolded with the proclamation of seven Old Testament readings, all serving as a reminder to us of the depth of salvation history;
- ~ the blessing of the Easter water, the renewal of our baptismal promises, and concluding the liturgy with the reception of the Eucharist;

- ~ the glorious liturgies of Easter morning, those gathering for the early 7:00 a.m. Mass; those who joined us for the 8:30 a.m. Mass, with the participation of the Children's and Youth Choirs, with youth instrumentalists, and those who gathered for the 10:30 a.m. liturgy, featuring our Adult Choir and instrumentalists. While each of these liturgies had its own distinct 'flavor', each had a common theme - the people of God gathered to celebrate Easter! There is no more appropriate occasion for us to hear Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus," than the Youth, Children's and Adult Choirs sang at their respective Masses. Following the 10:30 a.m. Mass, we enjoyed Wildor's Toccata Symphony #5. All of these components added to the festive character of our Easter liturgies.

These are just a few of the many examples of Easter faith I observed with you during Holy Week and Easter. Thank you for your presence and participating in our Holy Week and Easter liturgies, and for sharing your Easter faith with us!

Have a great week, and continue to celebrate Easter life during these Easter days. See you in church!

Fr. L.

Caring for God's Creation

After the recent introduction in the U.S. Congress of the Energy Innovation and Carbon Dividend Act of 2019, Bishop Frank Dewane, Chairman of the U.S. Bishops Committee on Domestic Justice and Human Development, welcomed the legislation as an important step forward in addressing climate change. He states, "this bipartisan bill is a hopeful sign that, more and more, climate change is beginning to be seen as a crucial moral issue; one that concerns all people. If enacted, this proposal is expected to result in significant reductions in greenhouse gas emissions. At a time when the dangerous effects of climate change are becoming increasingly apparent, the need for legislative solutions like this is more urgent than ever."

Horseheads Food Pantry

Non-perishable food and grocery items are being collected for the Horseheads Food Pantry this month. Please make checks payable to the Horseheads Food Pantry and place in the collection basket during Mass. Thank you for your generosity!

EVERY DAY STEWARDSHIP

After my mother passed away, my sister and father had a falling out of sorts. When he moved to be closer to me, she told me that she didn't ever want to speak to him again, saying, "Even if he is on his death bed, do not call me." My father was in his late 70's, and the pain he would have felt if he knew her wishes would have been too much to bear. Because of this, I made a decision to not tell him. This also put a strain on my relationship with my sister as I cared for the one person in this world she seemed to despise the most.

Of all the gifts God has given us, time and family are at the top of the list to be cherished. Also, both are finite gifts. Our family members will not walk in this world forever, and each day that slips away cannot be restored. Still, we build up walls of fear, doubt, resentment, anger, and pain, not allowing ourselves to forgive and be good stewards of what we have been given.

On Divine Mercy Sunday, God's mercy is overflowing through all the earth. There is no excuse for you and me to not be reconciled with God and accept this profound compassion. In turn, there is no excuse to not extend that mercy and reconcile with those who have hurt us.

I always believed I would have a renewed relationship with my sister when my father's death would come to pass. Two weeks after he passed, my sister suddenly died as well. There is no rewind of time. Yes, good stewards, today is the day! -Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
