SOLEMNITY OF THE LORD (Christmas)

Amidst the beautiful Christmas readings at today’s Masses is a reading from a small New Testament letter from Saint Paul to his protegee, Titus, read at Midnight Mass. Saint Paul reminds Titus that God has given us a gift in the person of Jesus Christ. This gift represents God’s active presence in our lives and in our world. This gift redeems us from evil and death. This gift purifies us as God’s people. This is a gift that also comes with an expectation: that we receive it with thanksgiving, allow it to transform us into Christ’s image; and from it, learn how to live a life “eager to do what is good.” Take time the next few days to reflect on the marvelous gift we celebrate at Christmas, and how we might become better stewards of this gift.

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE:

Many schools in our area have a time honored tradition of presenting a Christmas program. These programs feature the students performing and singing some of the traditional songs of this season. Earlier this month, our school held its annual Christmas program entitled, "A Christmas Chronicle." Even with a catchy title, we can take great pride that our school program always emphasizes the "real reason for the season."

Some good friends shared with me the following story about a school Christmas:

THE "W" IN CHRISTMAS 2022

Each December, I vowed to make Christmas a calm and peaceful experience. I had cut back on nonessential obligations – extensive card writing, endless baking, decorating, and even overspending. Yet still, I found myself exhausted, unable to appreciate the precious family moments, and of course, the true meaning of Christmas.

My son, Nicholas, was in kindergarten that year. It was an exciting season for a six year old. For weeks, he'd been memorizing songs for his school's 'Winter Pageant.'

I didn't have the heart to tell him I'd be working the night of the production. Unwilling to miss his shining moment, I spoke with his teacher. She assured me there would be a dress rehearsal the morning of the presentation. All parents unable to attend that evening were welcome to come then. Fortunately, Nicholas seemed happy with the compromise.

On the morning of the dress rehearsal, I filed in ten minutes early, found a spot on the cafeteria floor and sat down. Around the room, I saw several other parents quietly scampering to their seats. As I waited, the students were led into the room. Each class, accompanied by their teacher, sat cross-legged on the floor. Then, each group, one by one, rose to perform their song.

Because the public school system had long stopped referring to the holiday as 'Christmas,' I didn't expect anything other than fun, commercial entertainment songs of reindeer, Santa Claus, snowflakes and good cheer.

So, when my son's class rose to sing, 'Christmas Love,' I was slightly taken aback by its bold title. Nicholas was aglow, as were all of his classmates, adorned in fuzzy mittens, red sweaters, and bright snowcaps upon their heads. Those in the front row- center stage – held up large letters, one by one, to spell out the title of the song.

As the class would sing 'C is for Christmas,' a child would hold up the letter C. Then, 'H is for Happy,' and on and on, until each child holding up his portion had presented the complete message, 'Christmas Love.'

MASSES FOR THE WEEK:

Monday, 6:45 AM	December 26-St. Steven-the First Martyr No Mass
Tuesday, 6:45 AM	December 27–St. John-Apostle/Evangelist Francis Zielinski—Don and Debby Thomson and family
Wednesday, 6:45 AM	December 28-The Holy Innocents-Martyrs Bernadine Dwyer—Bob and Becky Corcoran
Thursday,  6:45 AM	December 29-Fifth Day Octave of Christmas-St. Thomas Becket Special Intention of Richard Palacios—Ann Gresock
Friday,  6:45 AM	December 30-Holy Family of Jesus, Mary &amp; Joseph Roberta Belletti—Marion O'Driscoll
Saturday,  5:00 PM	December 31–Seventh Day Octave of Christmas John Fesetch—Jackie and Warren Conklin
Sunday,  8:30 A.M. 10:30 A.M	January 1, 2023-Solemnity of Mary, The Mother of God Brian Greco—Linda Gardner and family Helen and Joseph Faltisco—Daughter, Mary

The performance was going smoothly, until suddenly, we noticed her; a small, quiet, girl in the front row holding the letter 'M' upside down – totally unaware her letter 'M' appeared as a "W".

The audience of 1st through 6th graders snickered at this little one's mistake. But she had no idea they were laughing at her, so she stood tall, proudly holding her 'W'.

Although many teachers tried to shush the children, the laughter continued until the last letter was raised, and we all saw it together. A hush came over the audience and eyes began to widen. In that instant, we understood the reason we were there, why we celebrated the holiday in the first place, why even in the chaos, there was a purpose for our festivities.

For when the last letter was held high, the message read loud and clear:

'CHRISTWASLOVE'

And, I believe, He still is.

On behalf of the entire staff of St. Mary Our Mother parish and school, I would like to wish you and yours a very Merry Christmas!

Saint John the Apostle - December 27

Saint John was one of the Twelve, part of Jesus' inner circle, among the few that witnessed the Transfiguration, the raising of Jarius' Daughter, and the Agony in the garden at Gethsemane. He and his brother James were the sons of Zebedee and Salome. When Jesus called them, they left their father mending nets and followed him. Jesus called the brothers "Boanerges," meaning "sons of thunder" — they were passionate in their faith and Jesus had to rebuke them for their fiery zeal on more than one occasion. John, the younger brother, possibly the youngest disciple, was the only one present at Jesus' death.

Saint John the Apostle is traditionally thought to be the author of the fourth Gospel, the three Epistles of John, and the Book of Revelation. However, there has been some debate among scholars from antiquity to the present. Tradition also gives him the title Beloved Disciple and John's Gospel sees him seated next to Jesus at the last supper and the one to whom Jesus gives the care of Mary at the crucifixion.

Although Church tradition says that John survived the other disciples, living a long life, much of it is steeped in myth and legend. Some say he retired to Ephesus after the crucifixion with Mary and remained there until he died. But in other traditions he is more active. For a time he remained in Jerusalem with the other disciples, then founded churches in Asia Minor. In a legend of his persecution, during the reign of the Emperor Domitian, John is taken to Rome and thrown into a cauldron of boiling oil but preserved from death. He is then exiled to the island of Patmos where the Book of Revelation was written.

Most accounts agree that after his exile and the Assumption of Mary he returned to Ephesus where he died sometime after 98, during the reign of the Emperor Trajan.

CHRISTMAS CARING PROGRAM:

To all who participated in our Christmas Caring Program —THANK YOU!

Thank you to all who donated food, money to buy meat and fresh food, and ornaments to our Christmas Caring Program. Your donations were delivered this week to the Horseheads Food Pantry for Christmas distribution. If you are still interested in donating, we will make a final delivery right before Christmas.

The Horseheads Food Pantry serves the needy in Horseheads and surrounding small towns and rural areas all year long. We have worked with the Pantry for years to provide additional assistance to needy families during the Christmas season. Thanks again for your generous response.
