A STEWARDSHIP MOMENT: The fourth Sunday of Advent.

In today’s Gospel reading we hear proclaimed the story of the Annunciation, when the angel of the Lord announced to Mary that she would give birth to Christ through the intercession of the Holy Spirit. Mary allowed God’s messenger to speak to her. She was attentive, not afraid to enter into a dialogue, then unconditionally obedient. Mary’s acceptance of this mystery is a stewardship model for us. Good stewards remain open to the incursions of divine life into the normal course of their daily lives. How open are we to the promptings of the Holy Spirit in our own lives? What might we do this last week of Advent to be more attentive to the Lord?

PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE:

Happy Fourth Sunday of Advent and Merry Christmas! I would like to take this opportunity to wish you and your family a Blessed and Merry Christmas! I feel blessed in my ministry as your pastor and join you in thanking God for the many ways we are blessed as the parish community of Saint Mary Our Mother.

I extend to all an invitation to our Christmas liturgies. These liturgies invite you to listen to the story of our salvation. The Christmas message is the story of God's unconditional love for us. As His disciples, we are called to fill this world with the many other stories that mirror and give witness to God's love for us. This is the meaning and the wonder of the Incarnation.

The Christmas holidays can be particularly painful for those who have lost loved ones this past year. Through the years, I have often enclosed the following in my Christmas greetings to friends who have lost loved ones. I thought it might be a timely poem as we look forward to Christmas this year.

MY FIRST CHRISTMAS IN HEAVEN

I see the countless Christmas trees around the world below; with tiny lights, like heaven's stars, reflecting on the snow.

The sight is so spectacular, please wipe away that tear, for I am spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

I hear the many Christmas songs, the people hold so dear, but the sounds of music can't compare, with the Christmas choir up here.

For I have no words to tell you, the joy their voices bring, for it is beyond description to hear an angel sing.

I can't tell you of the splendor, or the peace here in this place, can you just imagine Christmas with our Savior, face to face?

I'll ask Him to light your spirit, as I tell Him of your love, so then pray for one another, as you lift your eyes above.

Please let your heart be joyful, and let your spirit sing, for I am spending Christmas in Heaven, and I'm walking with a King!

I know how much you miss me, I see the pain inside your heart, but I'm really not that far away, we really aren't apart.

So be happy for me, dear ones, you know I hold you dear, and be glad that I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year.

Pastor's Perspective continued:

And all "love" is the gift, more precious than pure gold. It was almost most important in the stories Jesus told.

Please love and keep each other as my Father said to do, for I can't count the blessings of the love God has for you.

So have a Merry Christmas and wipe away that tear, remember I'm spending Christmas with Jesus Christ this year!

On behalf of the entire staffs of St. Mary Our Mother parish and school, we wish you, your family, and loved ones a blessed, holy and Merry Christmas!

THE MEANING OF THE 12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS:

What in the world do leaping frogs, French hens, swimming swans, and especially the partridge who won't come out of the pear tree have to do with Christmas?

Following is an article I found that offers a reflection on the meaning behind this carol. Author unknown.

From 1558 until 1829, Roman Catholics in England were not permitted to practice their faith openly. Someone during that era wrote this carol as a catechism song for young Catholics. It has two levels of meaning: the surface meaning plus the hidden meaning known only to members of their church.

Each element in the carol has a code word for a religious reality which the children could remember.

1. The partridge in a pear tree was Jesus Christ.
2. Two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments.
3. The three French hens stood for the virtues of faith, hope and love.
4. The four calling birds were the four Gospels: Can you name them? (check your Bible for help)
5. The five golden rings recalled the Torah or law, the first five books of the bible (look them up to learn the names of the books of the Torah)
6. The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation.
7. Seven swans a swimming represents the seven fold gifts of the Holy Spirit. You can find this list in your Bible; Isaiah, chapter 11, verses 1 and 2.
8. The eight maids a milking were the 8 Beatitudes; You can find a list of the beatitudes in Matthews Gospel, verses 5:3 --5:10.
9. Nine ladies dancing were the nine Fruits of the Holy Spirit. You can find this list in your Bible in the New Testament book of Galatians, 5:22-23.
10. The ten lords leaping were the Ten Commandments which are found in your Bible in Deuteronomy 5:6-21.
11. The eleven pipers stood for the eleven disciples. The names of these faithful followers are found in your Bible in the book of Acts, verses 13 and 14.
12. The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the twelve points of the belief in the Apostles Creed. We say this Creed together at every Mass.

So there is your history lesson. Get out your Bibles and look up the suggested bible verses to learn even more.

SAINT JOHN THE APOSTLE- FEAST DAY, DEC. 27.

St. John was one of the Twelve, part of Jesus' inner circle, among the few that witnessed the Transfiguration, the raising of Jarius' Daughter, and the Agony in the garden at Gethsemane. He and his brother James were the sons of Zebedee and Salome. When Jesus called them, they left their father mending nets and followed Him. Jesus called the brothers "Boanerges," meaning "sons of thunder"--they were passionate in their faith and Jesus had to rebuke them for their fiery zeal on more than one occasion. John, the younger brother, possibly the youngest disciple, was the only one present at Jesus' death.

St. John the Apostle is traditionally thought to be the author of the fourth Gospel, the three Epistles of John, and the book of Revelation. However, there has been some debate among scholars from antiquity to the present. Tradition also gives him the title Beloved Disciple and John's gospel sees him seated next to Jesus at the last supper and the one to whom Jesus gives the care of Mary at the crucifixion.

Although Church tradition says that John survived the other disciples, living a long life, much of it is steeped in myth and legend. Some say he retired to Ephesus after the crucifixion with Mary and remained there until he died. But in other traditions he is more active. For a time he remained in Jerusalem with the other disciples, then founded churches in Asia Minor. In a legend of his persecution, during the reign of the Emperor Domitian, John is taken to Rome and thrown into a cauldron of boiling oil but preserved from death. He is then exiled to the island of Patmos where the Book of Revelation was written.

Most accounts agree that after his exile and the Assumption of Mary, he returned to Ephesus where he died sometime after 98, during the reign of the Emperor Trajan..

ON THE LIGHTER SIDE:

Young Eddie was spending Christmas with his grandparents. While they were waiting to go into sit down at Church Eddie checked out all the announcements and pictures along the walls. When he came to a group of pictures of men in uniform, he asked a nearby usher, "who are all those men in the pictures?"

The usher replied, "why those are our boys who died in the service!"
